ABOUT THE STATE.

Deputy Sheriff James took Horace Campbell to Swanton Saturday from Winooski on the charge of being mixed up with Curtis and Paradise in robbing e money drawer at the east station a struments singly or in combination and the money drawer at the east station a few weeks ago. Curtis was captured at the time and is now serving in the House of Correction, Rutland. Padarise and Campbell disappeared and the latter was only recently located in Wincoski, where Mr. James got him. Paradise is said to be at his home in Canada. Campbell had a hearing before Justice Reynolds, Fred Webster prosecuting, and was fined $15 for petty larceny or four months and 29 days at Rutland. He selected the latter.

> At a confirmation service held in St. John's Catholic church, Castleton, recently, there was present a man who was confirmed in the church there at the first religious ceremony of the kind in that part of Vermont. It took place in July, 1844, nearly sixty-two years ago. Members of the scattered Catholic families in Poultney, Wallingford, Pawlet, Danby, Rutland, Brandon, and Pittsford were present. There were but few Catholic families in Fair Haven at that time. The priest of the mission, the Rev. John B. Dailey, assisted the Right Reverend Bishop Fitzpatrick, a noted-prelate of that day, whose jurisdiction embraced all the New England states.

Admissions to Soldiers' Home.

Recent admissions to the Vermon oldiers' home, Bennington, include Bert Mackie, who was admitted from Cabot. He served three years in the 26 U. S. A. n the Philippines and is in very poor health. Emerson Prouty was admitted from Washington, D. C. He enlisted in Brattleboro, and served three years in Co. I, 8th Vt. Vols., in the depart-ment of the gulf. Arthur Gilman has been admitted to the home from Derby. He is 72 years old and served three rears in the Thirteenth New Hampshir volunteers.
